

seeking in the sanctuary

Look around the sanctuary; do you see the Bible? Is there one near you? Is there one near the pulpit? The Bible is an important way for us to remember what God is saying to us. Draw a picture of a Bible that you see!

seeking: Who sinned?

4th Sunday In Lent | Year A

MAIN IDEA: There aren't always answers to our questions.

SCRIPTURE SUMMARY

John 9:1-41

The disciples asked Jesus, "Who sinned to make this man blind?" Jesus replied, "That's the wrong question to ask. This man isn't blind because of sin at all." Then Jesus took some mud, put it on the man's eyes and he was able to see.

"Son, Rise"

by T. Denise Anderson, inspired by today's gospel text, John 9:1-7

seeking in images

flip to the cover
artwork & take a closer look!

Are there things that are hard for you to believe?

Do you think every question has an answer? Can you think of a question that doesn't have an answer?

What story do you imagine is taking place in this picture?

mud

The Seeking logo was designed by Lauren Wright Pittman. Do you see the drop of mud? In the text for today, Jesus rubs mud on the blind man's eyes. Color the mud in the graphic above.

seeking in the scripture

These are some of the words from today's gospel text, John 9:1-41.
Color the words below when you hear them in the service.

believe RECEIVED
Jesus called ONE
born listen World
made SINNER open
blind thing already
asked heard SAID
know answer

The text today tells of a miracle. It was not possible.

Draw a picture of something impossible in the box below.

